

Sheep purchase agreement

Completion of this agreement serves as an intent to purchase animals from Valais Iowa, Scott Starkweather.

The total purchase price US $ _____ for (description of animals) _____
_____. The balance due
(purchase price less deposit paid) will be US $ _____, payable before transportation arrangements are made.

After full payment has been received, we will provide the buyer all necessary paperwork to transfer ownership of the animal into your name. Note that once you have received your animals, transfer paperwork is your responsibility, along with any association fees.

In signing this contract, the buyer hereby holds harmless the sellers, Scott & Tina Starkweather in the event of injury, illness, veterinarian bills or death that may occur once said animals have left their facility, as the safety and health of that sheep can no longer be monitored by us. Purchaser acknowledges that sheep require certain care, feed and health maintenance and assume all responsibility for said animals' health and wellbeing. Purchaser has the opportunity to make arrangements with seller to inspect purchased animals at a mutually agreed upon time.

If purchaser does not complete the purchase of the animal(s) by the agreed upon pickup/delivery date _____ of said animal(s), they forfeit the already paid deposit and lamb(s) will be offered to another buyer. If choice of lamb is not available due to illness or death the sellers will fully refund the deposit for that animal(s) within 15 days.
